

IN THE EIGHTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF IOWA

IN RE DISTRICT 8
COURT REPORTER POOLING

SUPERVISORY
ORDER

In view of the expected shortfall in Iowa's revenue for the remainder of the 2009 fiscal year and the 2009-2010 fiscal year, the Supreme Court of Iowa has ordered, effective immediately, pursuant to a Supervisory Order filed February 4, 2009, that Chief Judges of the Judicial Districts, or their designee, may temporarily pool court reporters for assignment as needed.

It is apparent court reporters in District 8 should be pooled for assignment as needed.

ORDER

IT IS THEREFORE HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED the certified shorthand reporters of all District Court Judges and District Associate Judges in District 8 are hereby pooled to be assigned as needed.

IT IS FURTHER HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED each certified shorthand reporter with a domicile in District 8 shall call the court administrator's office at 1-800-452-1005 each afternoon between the hours of 4:00 p.m. and 4:30 p.m. to be advised of their work assignment for the following day. Court Administration will continue to send out daily work assignment emails. If the court reporter receives a work assignment by email, no telephone call will be required.

IT IS FURTHER HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED this Order is effective commencing February 6, 2009, and the first telephone calls shall be made by the certified shorthand reporters on the afternoon of February 6 for assignment on February 9, 2009.

DATED this 5th day of February, 2009.

JAMES Q. BLOMGREN
CHIEF JUDGE
EIGHTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT
